

A Beach On A Foggy Day

Jade Anouka

This poem depicts the beauty and mystery of the world on a foggy day.

There's something truly magical
About looking out from a beach
On a foggy day.

The soft sand sinking beneath your shoes
As the waves kiss
And retract from you
Calling you in
Pushing you away
Calling you in again.

You can't see how far you can see
All you can see is sky
The sky and sea as one
The horizon nowhere.

You look around
You're in a perfect bubble of air
All around is water
You can taste it
The sea or the sky or both.

The mystery of what's beyond
Sings to you
Enticing you into a dream
A day dream
A dream of what's out there
Inside the fog
Beyond the sea

Creatures fly into it
Others fly back
Changed?
They've been where you wish to
The mysterious space
Beyond the fog

Beyond the sea
Where the horizon must be.

That magical place you want to see
So far away
When looking out from a beach
On a foggy day.
